Communities in Bloom to Look at Tree and Urban Forest Management in Campbell River

When the National Communities in Bloom judges tour the City of Campbell River on Friday, July 24 they will be judging commercial, residential, service club, non-profit, church and school groups and the City on tree and urban forest management.

The judges will be examining the distribution of trees, inventory, variety, suitability, new plantings, main street plantings, new developments, preservation of heritage trees, commemorative trees, woodlots, succession planting and plant health care and considering the knowledge of trained individuals on City staff.

If you are interested in helping prepare Campbell River for the Communities in Bloom competition, please join us at the next Communities in Bloom Committee meeting. For more information, please call the City of Campbell River Parks Office at 250-286-7275.
