

July 15, 2010

---

Campbell River Garden Contest Winners

The City of Campbell River Communities in Bloom Committee recently held its fourth annual garden contest. In addition to the residential, business and green garden categories, this year, another category was added for best community garden.

Congratulations to all participants and to the following winners:

Best Residential Patio/Balcony: Noella Ashley

Best Residential Small Garden

First place, Pat and Danuta Cole; Second place, Rose Krygowski; Third place, Jim Best

Best Residential Large Garden

First place, Gerard and Rita Choquette; Second place, Elizabeth Demunck; Third place, Jan Tees

Best Community Garden

First place, Ann John; Second place, Marg Ashcroft; Third place, Joan Grimm and Janet Hockley

Best Business Frontage: Dogwood Dental Health Centre

Best Business Property: Larwood Place

Business Property Honourable Mention: St. Patrick's Church

Best Green Garden: Elizabeth Demunck

Best Overall Garden: Ron and Marg Ashcroft

The Communities in Bloom Committee extends a huge thank-you to the garden contest judges, volunteers from the Campbell River Garden Club who evaluated the gardens and properties.

The committee also thanks the Garden Contest Sponsors: The City of Campbell River, Comox Strathcona Waste Management, Ladybug Greenhouse, Campbell River Garden Centre, Sticks N Stones Nursery, Willows Market, Brymik Earthworks, Renuable Resources and Serendipity in the Garden.

Contest winners received their prizes at the Communities in Bloom Meet and Greet this week.

– 30 –

Contact: Lynn Wark, Parks Project Supervisor

250-286-7805