Free family fun starts with the bus to National Child Day at Community Centre Nov. 15

There'll be fun for the whole family and no charge to hop aboard the bus to get to the Community Centre for National Child Day events Nov. 15. Join us from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

“National Child Day events we encourage play, creativity, imagination and culture with activities such as make it and take it stations, play-doh centre, music sessions, cardboard city and Family Place for healthy child and community development.” says recreation programmer Kara Shirley “These activities help strengthen bonds between children, families and members of the wider community while celebrating diversity among families and cultures.”

Thanks to many community groups and businesses for generous donations and participation in this year's event.

National Child Day is celebrated each year in November. This event marks the occasion when Canada adopted the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child declaring that children and youth should have basic human rights. National Child Day serves as a reminder that children and youth are to be protected from all forms of child abuse, neglect and exploitation and have the right to be safe and grow up in a healthy environment.
