

Types of Subdivision and Strata Applications

Subdivision: (Fee Simple): A subdivision application is made when the applicant wants to create two or more properties from one or more existing parcels, adjust or re-align an existing property line, or consolidate two or more properties into one lot.

Bare Land Strata Subdivision: A bare land strata subdivision is to create strata lots within one parcel of land where owners have joint ownership over the common lands and individual ownership of strata lots.

Building Strata Subdivision: A strata development is a development where the building complex is divided into multiple units, with all unit owners having joint ownership of the common elements and separate ownership of their individual units.

Phased Building Strata: This is an application for a strata complex that is built out over several phases.

Strata Title Conversion of Existing Dwellings: This is an application for conversion of an existing dwelling (e.g. apartment building) to strata titled ownership of individual units.

Application Process

- Once completed application is received, the subdivision application is circulated for a three (3 week) review to internal departments and external agencies.
- The Approving Officer, within sixty (60) days of receipt of the completed application, either rejects the application or issues a Preliminary Layout Approval (PLA) and sends it to the applicant/agent.
- Where a PLA has been issued, the applicant must then:
  - complete all of the outstanding conditions and required items outlined under the PLA;
  - make a written request for final approval;
  - submit the “as-built” engineered construction drawings for works and services; and
  - submit the final approval fee;to the Land Use Services Department.
- The applicant must pay all outstanding fees and financial requirements before receiving final approval by the Approving Officer.
- The Approving Officer reviews the application and gives final approval when all requirements and terms under the PLA have been met by the applicant(s).
- Once the Approving Officer has given final approval for the subdivision plan, the applicant is responsible for registering the subdivision plan and all associated documents, such as covenants, easements and Statutory Rights of Way (SROW's) at the British Columbia Land Title Office.

Introduction

Under section 40 of the Environmental Management Act, a person who knows or reasonably should know that a site has been used or is used for industrial or commercial purposes or activities must in certain circumstances provide a site profile.

Schedule 2 of the Contaminated Sites Regulation sets out the types of industrial or commercial purposes or activities to which site profile requirements apply.

If section 40 of the Environmental Management Act applies to you and you know or reasonably should know that the site has been used or is used for one of the purposes or activities found in Schedule 2 of the Contaminated Sites Regulation, you may be required to complete the attached site profile.

Notes/Instructions:

Persons preparing a site profile must complete Section I, II and III, answer all questions in sections IV through IX, and sign section XI. If the site profile is not satisfactorily completed, it will not be processed under the Environmental Management Act and the Contaminated Sites Regulation. Failure to complete the site profile satisfactorily may result in delays in approval of relevant applications and in the postponement of decisions respecting the property.

The person completing this site profile is responsible for the accuracy of the answers. Questions must be answered to the best of your knowledge.

One (1) site profile may be completed for a site comprised of more than one titled or untitled parcel, but individual parcels must be identified.

The latitude and longitude (accurate to 0.5 of a second using North American Datum established in 1983) of the centre of the site must be provided. Also, please attach an accurate map, containing latitude, longitude and datum references, which shows the boundaries of the site in question. Please use the largest scale map available.

If the property is untitled Crown land (no PID number), then the appropriate PIN numbers (Parcel Identification Numbers – Crown Land registry system) for each parcel with the appropriate land description should be supplied.

If available, the Crown Land File Number for the site should also be supplied.

Anything submitted in relation to this site profile will become part of the public record and may be made available to the public through the Site Registry as established under the Environmental Management Act.
