

Councillor Ron Kerr

Born and raised in North Vancouver, Ron Kerr has lived in Campbell River since 1973. For 30 years, he ran his landscape contracting business, Ron Kerr Homes and Gardens, designing and constructing many projects on the North Island.

For 22 years, Ron helped run successful health care businesses and an accredited college for holistic health. Ron's skills were with financial management, mediation counselling, construction and maintenance.

Community Involvement (Current and Former)

- Vice-chairman of the Community Advisory Committee
- Steering Committee for the new Sustainable Official Community Plan (SOCP)
- Spirit Square Steering Committee
- Founder of Campbell River Tartan Day Society
- Director of Campbell River TV (CRTV)
- Past President of the Campbell River Arts Council
- River City Players
- Rotary Club of Campbell River
- Advisory Planning Committee
- Director and President of the Campbell River Credit Union
- Founder of CR Flag Football League
- Elected to Council in 2011.

Interests / Hobbies: Sculpture and art, ACTRA, gardening, floor hockey, hiking, rock climbing and mountaineering.

Ron is married to Pauline Wolf, and has two adult sons and two grandchildren.