

City of Campbell River

From the Office of the Mayor

- PROCLAMATION -

- WHEREAS Co-operative Education is a program integrating theoretical study and practical work experience whereby students participate alternatively in the classroom and on the job;
- AND WHEREAS Co-operative Education gives students the opportunity to apply classroom studies in a practical environment thereby enriching their education, developing maturity and increasing motivation while earning money;
- AND WHEREAS The employer identifies opportunities for long-range employee succession through Co-operative Education, which provides a streamlined recruitment and training program, frees regular staff from challenging but essential projects, enables business and industry to participate in and influence higher education, thus creating mutual ties;
- AND WHEREAS Co-operative Education fosters an extension of the educational institution to reach a larger segment of the community through utilizing actual business and industry facilities while keeping abreast with leading practices, procedures and technology;
- AND WHEREAS Through provincial, national and overseas placements, Co-operative Education promotes sustained global connections, offers students the opportunity to broaden their language skills and to work and study in Canada and beyond

NOW THEREFORE I, Charlie J. Cornfield, Mayor of the City of Campbell River do hereby proclaim the week of March 21st to 25th, 2011, as

"CO-OPERATIVE EDUCATION WEEK"

in the City of Campbell River, Province of British Columbia

Dated this 9th day of January 2011.

Charlie J. Cornfield
