

City of Campbell River

From the Office of the Mayor

– P R O C L A M A T I O N –

WHEREAS: In 2010, 188 workers in British Columbia lost their lives as a result of workplace injury or occupational disease; the highest level in 25 years and a 40 percent increase from the previous year;

AND WHEREAS: The Day of Mourning was initiated by the Canadian Labour Congress in 1984, and Canada was the first country to formally recognize this day now observed around the world;

AND WHEREAS: Each year, workers and employers, family members of fatally injured workers and representatives from all levels of government are invited to participate in the Day of Mourning to honour the memory of lost workers and to increase public awareness of occupational health and safety;

AND WHEREAS: The loss of life at work is tragic and preventable, and through observing the Day of Mourning, we honour those who have passed away and remind our community to renew their commitment to ensure all workers are safe on the job.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT I, Charlie Cornfield, Mayor of the City of Campbell River, do hereby proclaim April 28th, 2011 to be:

“DAY OF MOURNING”

in the City of Campbell River, British Columbia.

Dated this 21st day of April, 2011.

Charlie J. Cornfield
MAYOR
