

City of Campbell River

From the Office of the Mayor

- P R O C L A M A T I O N -

- WHEREAS Respectful and purposeful inter-generational connecting is the number one prevention of Elder Abuse and mistreatment of older and younger generations;
- AND WHEREAS Intergenerational Day Canada is meant to bring attention to and remind people of the positive power of simply and respectfully connecting generations in play and work;
- AND WHEREAS Intergenerational Day Canada will have its greatest strength as a reminder and an invitation for every individual to do something positive in bridging generations with the local community;
- AND WHEREAS Intergenerational Day is a focus day and does not require funding, time or extensive planning. Campbell River will benefit from the reminder of the importance of making a personal effort to call, visit, embrace or acknowledge someone of another generation in an empathetic and respectful manner.
- NOW THEREFORE I, Walter Jakeway, Mayor of the City of Campbell River do hereby proclaim the Friday, June 1st, 2012, to be observed as:

"INTERGENERATIONAL DAY CANADA"

in the City of Campbell River, Province of British Columbia.

Dated this 2nd day of May, 2012.

Walter Jakeway
