

City of Campbell River

From the Office of the Mayor

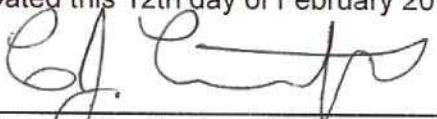

- P R O C L A M A T I O N -

- WHEREAS Campbell River is home to friendly, progressive, helpful, hospitable, generous, unique, diverse, involved people whose smiling colourful faces are full of spirit – the heartbeat and treasure of our city;
- AND WHEREAS Our seaside community lives in harmony with nature, and our hearts sing with praise and thanks for the abundance and splendor that surround us in a perfect display of BC's rugged beauty;
- AND WHEREAS Our little piece of heaven with its breathtaking scenery and environmental wonders inspires the spirit and energizes the soul – and makes each day a gift for the senses;
- AND WHEREAS In Campbell River, we've got it all: year-round recreation and outdoor activities for all ages, spectacular events, choice opportunities for health, education and spiritual peace – and all in a mild coastal climate that promotes a healthy lifestyle;
- AND WHEREAS In Campbell River, inspiration is a way of life, and living here feels like living in a small town with a city pulse;
- AND WHEREAS With tall totems and open hands, we honour our remarkably resilient spirit and care for one another;
- AND WHEREAS Whether filling a 53-foot trailer with food for the needy or welcoming the Olympic Torch, Campbell River wears its heart on its sleeve and knows how to celebrate community;
- AND WHEREAS Campbell River: our community, our river, our grace – our hearts tell us to live here, for we know we are truly blessed to be at home in a place that makes people proud to say: I'm a River-ite.
- NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT I, Charlie Cornfield, Mayor of the City of Campbell River, do hereby proclaim February 14th, 2010 to be the first annual:

"Love Your Community Day" in the City of Campbell River, Province of British Columbia.

Dated this 12th day of February 2010 at Campbell River.

Mayor Charlie Cornfield