YOU ASKED: Are BC Building Code requirements related to fire response time changing?

BC Building Code requirements for construction outside the Fire Department's 10-minute response time remain in effect and unchanged.

With the 2017 budget supporting two new firefighters stationed at Fire Hall No. 2 in Willow Point, the City has received inquiries about the potential impact to Fire Department response times in south Campbell River.

For changes to the BC Building Code requirements to occur, the Fire Department would have to collect and provide data that demonstrates response time with new staff in place. New data will not be available for at least a year.

At this time, there are no changes to the BC Building Code requirements for areas that have been identified outside the Fire Department's 10-minute response time.

The City will share any future changes in response times that affect building regulations as news and through advertisements and notifications to local builders and developers.
