COMMUNITY UPDATE | March 20, 2020

Questions about what's happening with City services and the COVID-19 response?

Public health is our top priority.

Most facilities are now closed to the public. Please call or email us to reach us.

We're working to continue to provide essential City services – and keep you updated.

Also:

- Follow all provincial and federal directions.
- Increase frequency of hand washing and avoid touching your face.
- Maintain social distance (no handshaking and hugging)
- If you are sick, or have possibly been exposed to or contracted the coronavirus, contact the B.C. Nurse Line at 8-1-1.
- Provincial hotline for non-health-related questions 1-888-COVID19
- Seek immediate medical attention if you have a fever, cough or difficulty breathing.

Thank you, everyone, for doing your part to support our community in exceptionally challenging times.
