

City of Campbell River

From the Office of the Mayor

- PROCLAMATION -

- WHEREAS All community members should have equity in opportunities, and full participation in community life;
- AND WHEREAS It is instrumental to educate and inform all citizens of our community of the important part they play in making it accessible to all;
- AND WHEREAS Access is about removing structural barriers to participation both in physical accessibility (largely, but not entirely in the built environment) and about inclusion, where individuals are recognized for their contributions;
- AND WHEREAS Providing designated parking spaces is essential to the economic, social and physical well-being of all British Columbians (both able and disabled) in order to contribute and remain active in their community;
- AND WHEREAS The citizens of Campbell River recognize people with disabilities as equal members where they can contribute and participate in employment, transportation, community activities or recreation and leisure.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that I, Charlie Cornfield, Mayor, of the City of Campbell River do hereby proclaim June 5, 2010 to be:

"ACCESS AWARENESS DAY"

in the City of Campbell River, Province of British Columbia; a day of individual and group action to provide equitable opportunities and an accessible community for all residents.

Dated this 5th day of June, 2010 at Campbell River, B.C.

Charlie J. Cornfield
MAYOR
