Live and online: Community Events Calendar's comprehensive listings – a click away

Looking for a single source of all community meetings and events, large and small? Check out the Community Events Calendar at www.campbellriverbc.ca.

Managed by the Campbell River Visitor Centre, the Community Events Calendar offers a one-stop location to view (and post!) all community group meetings, sports and cultural events, community celebrations and fun activities and festivals for all ages and interests.

The Community Events Calendar offers a quick look at the day, week, month or year. At www.campbellriverbc.ca, click on "Events" and the calendar pops into view. Select the day, week or month of interest and click "expand all" to see every listing. Click on the listing for more details.

Events features on the Community Events Calendar must be held within the Strathcona Regional District, open to the general public and be of community interest.

The Community Events Calendar pulls together information from a number of other sources, including: newspapers, the Campbell River Recreation Guide, the Volunteer Centre, the Campbell River Multicultural and Immigrant Services Association, the What's On Digest, 50+ Active Living Bulletins, Chamber news, Art Gallery updates and more.

"The Recreation and Culture Department uses this very useful tool as another way to promote events and activities," says Ross Milnthorp, the City's general manager of parks, recreation and culture. "We hope that all community groups and associations will use the Community Events Calendar to promote their activities and that the community will regularly refer to this source to find comprehensive community event information."

Make the online Community Events Calendar one of your Internet favourites, and check back often for updates.

People can also see the Community Events Calendar by clicking on "Community 2010 Calendar" above "What's New" on the City of Campbell River's home page (www.campbellriver.ca)
