Mayor's Open Door sessions discontinued until after election

The Mayor's twice-monthly open door sessions have been discontinued until the next civic election, which takes place November 19, 2011.

Dates for the next series of open door sessions will be announced following the election.

Mayor Charlie Cornfield and some Council members in the role of acting mayor have hosted dozens of visitors since the open door sessions began in early 2009.

People can still share ideas and concerns with City Council by telephone at (250)-286-5708, or by email. For the Mayor, write to mayor.cornfield@campbellriver.ca. To reach Councillors, the email address format is councillor.lastname@campbellriver.ca (insert the surname of the Councillor you wish to write in place of "lastname" in the format).

People can also make arrangements to appear as a delegation to Council by filling out a delegation request form on the City's website (www.campbellriver.ca) under City Hall/Council Meetings/Delegation Procedures or by contacting the City Clerk's office at 250-286-5700 or via email to info@campbellriver.ca.
