

1. The tax sale will be held this year on September 25th, 2023, at 10:00 a.m. at the Campbell River Municipal Hall in Council Chambers located at 301 St. Ann's Road, Campbell River, BC.
2. The lowest amount for which parcels may be sold is at the "Upset Price". The Upset Price covers:
  - a. delinquent and arrears taxes plus interest to date of sale (interest rate currently set at 9.45%)
  - b. current year taxes plus penalty
  - c. the sum of 5% of the foregoing amounts; and
  - d. $183.17* per title for Land Title Office fees (* May 2022 rates).
3. A bid by any person will be deemed to be conclusive proof that the person has made themselves acquainted with these terms and conditions of sale and has agreed to be bound by them.
4. The highest bidder at or above the upset price will be accepted.
5. The auction will be conducted with three calls on the final bid.
6. The final determination as to the successful bidder will be made by the Collector who will keep a sales record which shall be conclusive in all respects as to each sale.
7. If no bid is received at or above the upset price, the municipality is deemed to be the purchaser.
8. Any person upon being declared the successful bidder must provide their name and address and pay by certified cheque in a minimum no less than the upset price. Failure to pay this amount will result in the property promptly being offered for sale again. Any balance must be paid by certified cheque by 3:00 p.m. of the same day. Failure to pay the balance will result in the property being offered for sale again at a later date.
9. Interac/Cash/Personal Cheque/Credit Card will NOT be accepted. The only acceptable form of payment is by certified cheque.
10. The current registered owner(s) may redeem the property within one year and still has the right of possession during the one-year redemption period.
11. If the property is redeemed, the purchaser is entitled to all amounts paid plus interest as set by the Province of BC. Refund interest is calculated on the purchase price of the property, not the upset price. A T-5 for Income Tax purposes will be issued to purchasers for interest earned.
12. If the property is not redeemed after one year, the property will be transferred to the tax sale purchaser free and clear of all mortgages, charges, liens, etc. except those imposed by a senior government (Province of British Columbia, Government of Canada).
13. If the subject property is a strata lot, the Land Title Office may not register the change in ownership until a Certificate of Payment is obtained from the strata corporation. The successful purchaser will be responsible at their own expense to settle the outstanding strata fees. Prospective purchasers should obtain legal advice on their rights and obligations with respect to amounts owing to the Strata Corporation and possible recourse.
14. The purchaser will be responsible to pay the Property Purchase Tax and any other required tax on the fair market value of the property at the time of transfer of title. The Property Purchase Act rates are 1% on the first $200,000 of fair market value and 2% on the balance.
