Fall 2025 Campbell River Recreation Guide Available Now

Program registration opens Monday, August 18, at 10 a.m.

The City of Campbell River has released its Fall 2025 Campbell River Recreation Guide, covering September to December programming at the Campbell River Community Centre and the Sportsplex, as well as events throughout the city.

The guide is available online now at campbellriver.ca/recreation-guide, and registration opens at 10 a.m. on Monday, August 18, 2025. Register online at campbellriver.ca/registration, in person at the Community Centre or Sportsplex, or by calling 250-286-1161 or 250-923-7911.

"The fall programming season will soon be here, and you might find yourself wondering what exciting programs and events the City has in store and how you can participate," says Robin Mitchell, Recreation and Culture Manager. "Well, the wait is over! We are excited to share this recreation guide, filled with programs, classes and events for the enjoyment of all ages, including plenty of activities to keep kids entertained as we transition from summer into fall."

Check out some of the returning events, including activities to celebrate National Child Day, the Toy and Craft Show, Breakfast with Santa and Monster Mash. The guide also features other community events led by local organizations, such as the third annual Vancouver Island Food Truck Festival.

Don't miss the opportunity to participate in some new activities, with programs such as Seniors Tea and Talk; Mushroom Picking for Beginners — Identification and Foraging; Foraging and Preparing Mushrooms; Experience the Culture and Rhythm of Latin Dance — Salsa and Bachata; Healthy Hips Yoga; and Zumba and Pump. Plus, relive your favourite schoolyard games with Adult Recess!

And, if you've purchased a fitness membership, or are considering one, keep in mind that memberships include fitness classes, yoga classes, the weight room, squash and racquetball courts, pickleball, badminton, drop-in basketball, soft tennis and table tennis.
