

2026 PROPERTY TAX INFOSHEET

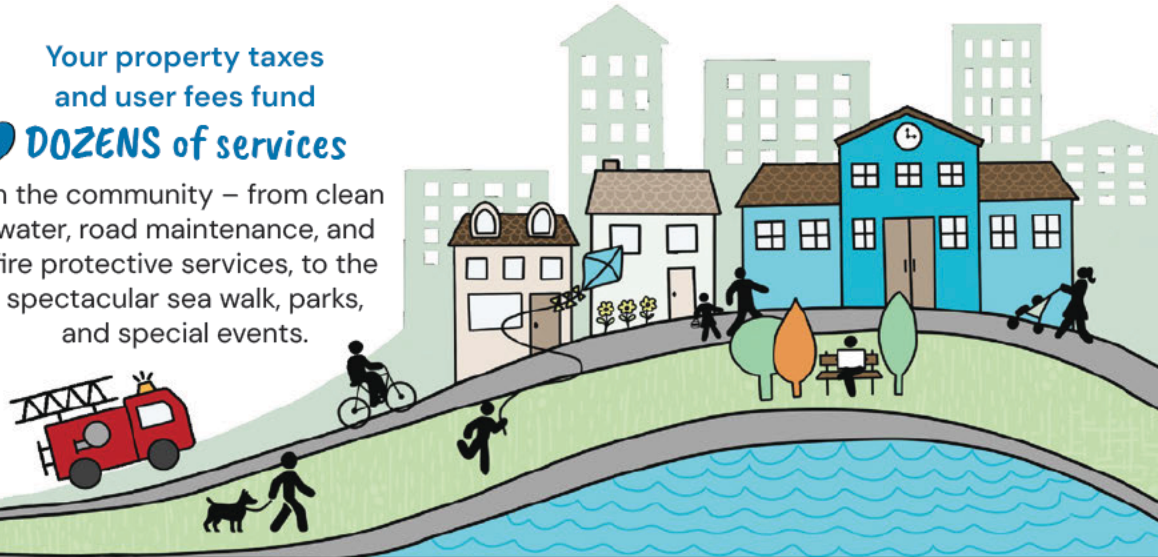

Property taxes are due by 11:59 p.m., JULY 2, 2026

Please review your Property Tax Notice for payment option details

Your property taxes and user fees fund DOZENS of services in the community – from clean water, road maintenance, and fire protective services, to the spectacular sea walk, parks, and special events.

2026 Property Taxes

This year, residents will see a rate increase of:

Average single-family home valued at $722,000

*This represents the City portion of your tax bill only. Read on to learn about your tax notice breakdown →

Budget Highlights

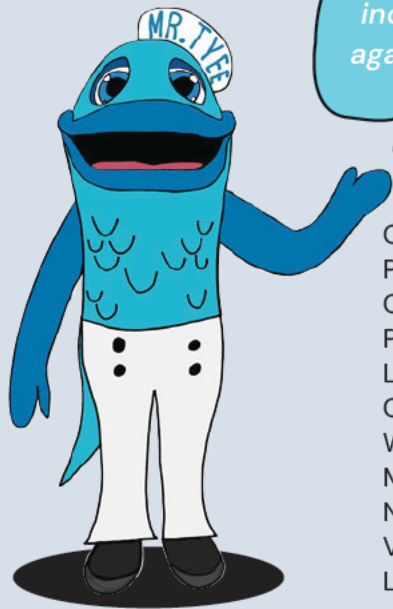

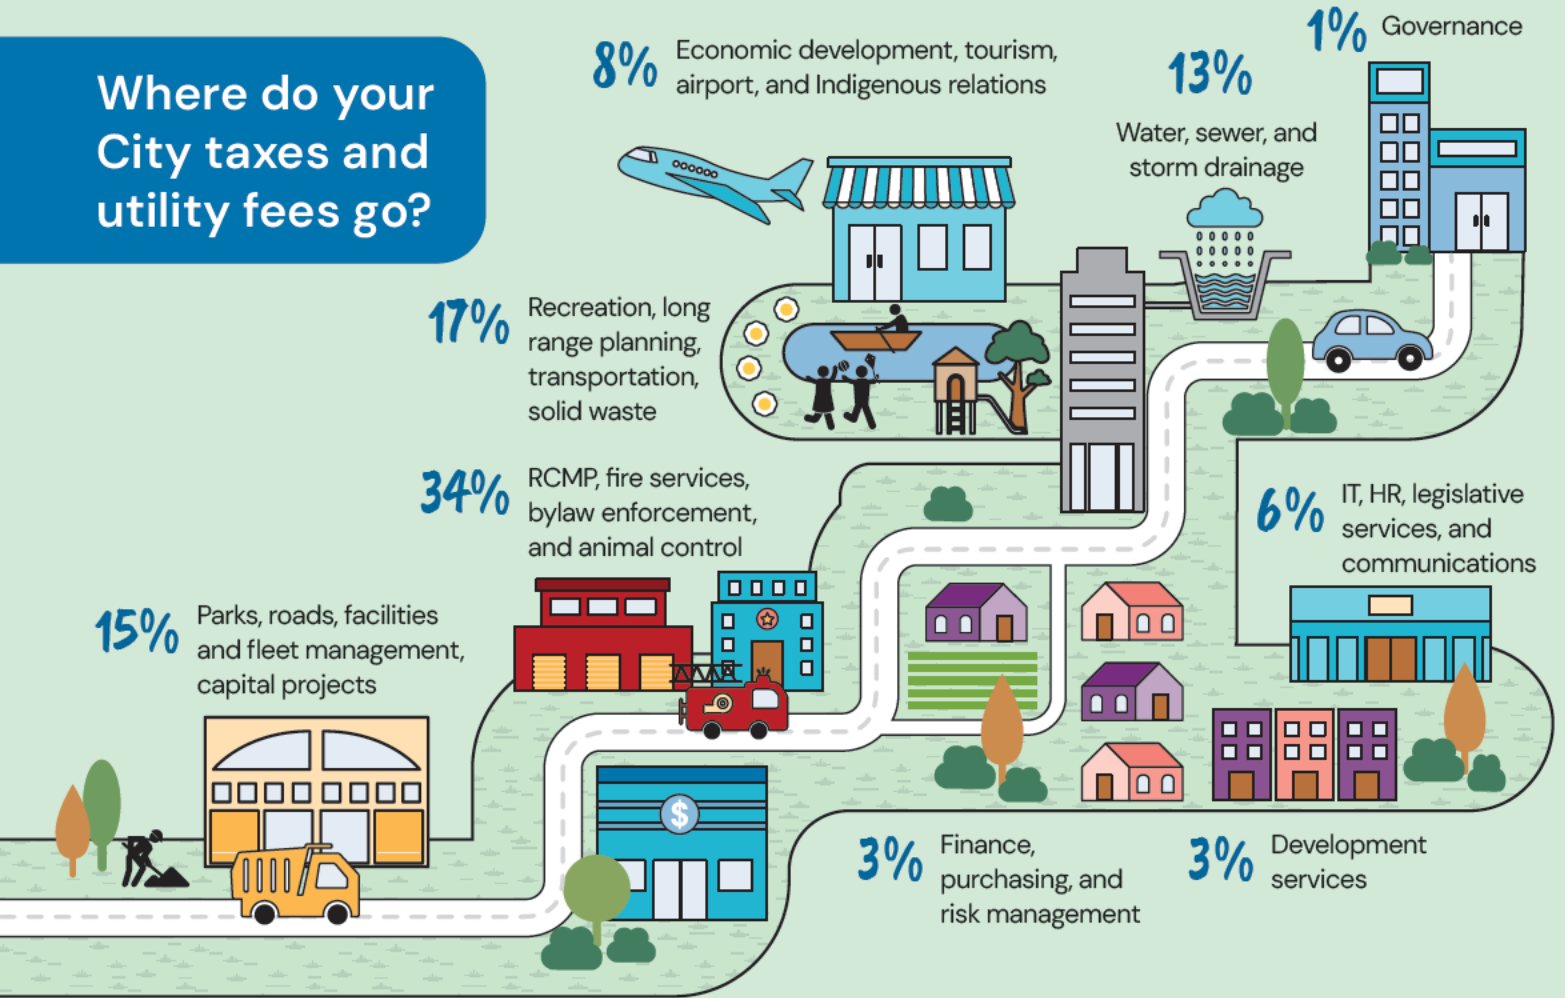

- ★ The 2026 Budget protects essential services, invests in community safety and infrastructure, and limits the tax increase to 2.7 per cent. Cost pressures—mainly wages, benefits, and the RCMP agreement—were partly offset through cost savings and efficiencies.
- ★ $767 K for community safety
- ★ $83 M in major capital projects
- ★ $795 M in operating projects to maintain services

2026 Tax Distribution

Your property tax bill includes taxes and utility fees for the City of Campbell River, as well as taxes collected on behalf of other organizations/agencies.

Where do your City taxes and utility fees go?

Here's how our tax increase weighs in against comparable communities:

Campbell River	2.70%
Port Moody	4.25%
Cranbrook	4.99%
Port Alberni	5.70%
Langley	5.82%
Courtenay	6.00%
West Kelowna	6.64%
Mission	7.43%
North Cowichan	8.42%
Vernon	9.33%
Langford	10.22%

Payment Info and Questions

Payment Options:

An overview of all the payment options is available on the reverse of the property tax notice, and online at campbellriver.ca/property-taxes

Payment Processing:

The City must have received payment by 11:59 p.m. on July 2. Depending on the method of payment you chose, you may need to allow processing time for payment to be completed.

Questions?

taxes@campbellriver.ca
250.286.5700
campbellriver.ca/property-taxes

